

MY FAVOURITE HOLIDAY DESTINATION

Introduction:

Shimla was my favorite summer holiday destination in India. It is the capital of the state of Himachal Pradesh. I visited it along with my friends in summer. Before arrival to the beautiful Shimla I reserved the hotel through a tour operator company. Thanks to this tour operator for arranging such a luxurious hotel at a reasonable price. It was a wonderful summer journey of friends.

What we visited in Shimla:

There were many dazzling and wonderful attractive spots to watch like Jakhu Hill, Lord Hanuman temple and local handicraft museum. Jakhu Hill is a mind-blowing hill station and according to the tour operator the hill station is safest trekking place in India. Next morning we had gone on a trekking trip, really the trip was unforgettable. Apart from trekking we had also enjoyed shopping.

Next day we had visited Tara Devi, according to local belief the Shimla tour remains incomplete if a tourist never visit Goddess Tara Devi temple. The temple distance was only 11km from our hotel. The temple had many traditional memories, at the first visit to the temple itself we got a very spiritual feeling.

Conclusion:

Really Shimla was an amazing place and it is worth visiting atleast once in a lifetime.
