

Jagarlamudi Kuppaswamy Choudary College
(Sponsored by Nagarjuna Education Society)
Guntur, A.P. INDIA.

శీలన శోభతే విద్యా

Symposium on

“Bifurcation of Andhra Pradesh- Strategies for Development”

Department of Economics in association with Department of Statistics organized a Symposium on “Bifurcation of Andhra Pradesh- Strategies for Development” on 24-11-2017. Dr. K. Basava Punnaiah President, Nagarjuna Education Society and J K C College presided over the Symposium. Sri Jagarlamudi Murali Mohan, Secretary & Correspondent, J K C College, is the guest of honour and Dr A Leela Mohan, former Registrar, Vignan University is the chief guest. Dr. I. Nageswara Rao Principal, Sri S.R.K. Prasad Director, PG courses, Sri P. Gopichand Vice Principal also delivered their messages in the inaugural session. Dr G. Sudhakar Retd.Principal, K.R Degree College, Prof. R Sivaram Prasad, HoD, Dept. of Commerce and Management Studies, Acharya Nagarjuna University delivered lectures. In the opening remarks, Dr K. Basavapunnaiah said that India and China got freedom almost in the same period, but China achieved rapid development because of implementation of technology. Sri Jagalamudi Murali Mohan said that optimum utilisation of resources was the major challenge. Dr D Siva Sankara Rao was the Organising Secretary and P. Raghu was the convener to the symposium.